email: me@jonathanpearson.net

Jonathan Pearson is a husband, dad, pastor, and encourager. He is a 2008 graduate of Charleston Southern University and attended Liberty University Theological Seminary. He and his wife Melissa married in December 2008 and began serving full-time as a Student Minister.

Two years later, Jonathan heard God's call to move on faith to Orangeburg, S.C. and get involved in Cornerstone Community Church. After just a couple of months, Jonathan was hired on staff. Jonathan was Orangeburg Campus Pastor at Cornerstone, a campus with an average of 1400 attendees until January of 2017. He now serves as Teaching Pastor for Springwell Church in Taylors, S.C.

In June of 2013, Jonathan was recognized as one of the nation's top young influencers by Brad Lomenick, Founder of Catalyst. He's also been a speaker at The Sticks Conference, Exponential, The NINES, and Propel conferences. In June 2014, Jonathan released his first book, Next Up: 8 Shifts Great Young Leaders Make. In 2019, Jonathan released his second book, Be the Switch: Living Your Calling While Living Your Life. He's been a guest on the Carey Nieuwhof Leadership Podcast. He and his wife have one child, Riley.
